

Planning your career in Natural Health

Steps that you can take whilst studying to assist you achieve your career goals

First year of your degree

If it is your first semester of study, from now until the end of the year you need to commence exploring your career options by:

- Identify your values, strengths and your career goal
- Research the different career paths available to you
- Attend on-campus career events and other campus events
- Connect with the Careers Service
- Join a professional association as a student member

Middle stage of your studies (Second and Third year)

You have hit the important middle stage of your degree and it is vital for you to gather momentum and prepare for your future career within the natural health industry. Previous graduates have identified the following have assisted them at this crucial stage of their studies:

- Review your career goal
- Seek other relevant work experience (in addition to the clinic experience in your degree)
- Review and connect with your professional networks
- Research potential employers
- Attend professional association, Endeavour College and industry networking events/presentations
- Contact the Careers Service to discuss your career trajectory
- Access Endeavour's Job Board and keep a record of employers advertising job vacancies
- Review your technical and transferable skills. Are there any gaps?

Final year of your degree

If it is your third or final year of study the below tips could assist you prepare for a successful transition into the natural health industry:

- Update your resume and cover letter
- Continue on building your professional networks.
- Discuss your transition to employment with the Careers Service
- Contact employers/clinics for future job opportunities
- Attend professional association, Endeavour College and industry networking events/presentations

Careers resources available for you to access:

Endeavour's Natural Health webinar program

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service/events-and-webinars

Endeavour's Jobs Board

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/jobs-board

Transitioning to Employment

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service/resources

Industry panel recordings

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service/industry-panels

Employment Preparation resources – covering resume tips, transferable skills, cover letter, interview tips etc.

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service/applying-for-jobs

Business Development – webinar recordings

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service/webinar-recordings

Careers Service contact details:

🔍 endeavour.edu.au/careers-service ✉ Careers.Service@endeavour.edu.au
☎ 1300 884 246 💬 skype: raleighendeavour

